To Whom it May Concern,

I am writing this letter of recommendation for conductor, Jordan Randall Smith.

I have known Jordan for six years, in many capacities and I feel that he is a worthy candidate to consider. I have had the opportunity to work alongside Jordan while pursuing our doctorate degrees in the same year at the Peabody Conservatory. I later played under his baton with Symphony Number One and studied conducting under his guidance.

Jordan has always shown himself to be thoughtful and intelligent. He has conducted himself with the highest degree of professionalism and collegiality, both as a colleague and conductor. His conducting is clear and musical, and he treats the orchestra members respectfully. His rehearsals and conducting lessons were well planned and thorough. Jordan is a capable leader and takes initiative as he has demonstrated through his creation and musical direction of Symphony Number One.

I give Jordan my highest recommendation. If you have any questions, please contact me.
